2 Gunkanjima (" Battleship Island ") World Heritage Site Cruis

Gunkanjima, which flourished as a coal-mining island, boasted the largest population density in the world in 1960. Discontinued operations in 1974 and became an unpopulated island. Two ship services from Nagasaki Port Terminal per day. Prior reservations possible.

3 Hamano-machi

The most lively shopping district in Nagasaki. Nagasaki's most delicious foods can all be sampled in one place. Make sure to try chanpon noodles, saradonstir-fried noodles, toruko-raisu, ramen, and milkshakes.

4 Oura Church

4 Oura Church

The oldest church in Japan. Became the religiously historic dramatic scene of the "discovery of the faithful."

4minutes on foot

5 Glover Garden (World Heritage Site)

The oldest western-style wooden house in Japan with a view overlooking Nagasaki port. This is a "power spot" with mysterious energies, where it is said that if you find a heart stone in the garden you will achieve happiness.

6 Fuchi Shrine

A spot noted in connection with entertainer Masaharu Fukuyama.

7 Mt. Inasa

One of Japan's foremost nightview spots. Chosen as one of the top three new nightviews in the world.
